From the LONDON GAZETTE EXTRAORDINARY.

Whitehall, September 30, 1762.

LAST Night Captain Nugent, and the Honourable Auguſtus Hervey, arrived from the Havannah, with the following Accounts from the Earl of Albemarle, and Sir George Pocock.

Copy of a Letter from the Earl of Albemarle to the Earl of Egremont, dated Head-Quarters, near the Havannah, Auguſt 21, 1762.

My LORD,

I HAVE the Honour of informing your Lordſhip, that the Town of the Havannah, with all its Dependencies, and the Men of War in the Harbour, ſurrendered to his Majeſty's Arms, by Capitulation, on the 13th Inſtant.

Incloſed is a Copy of the Capitulation, various Returns, and the Chief Engineer's Continuation of the Journal of the Siege of the Moro Fort, which was taken by Storm the 30th of laſt Month, ſo much to the Honour and Credit of his Majeſty's Troops, and to Major General Keppel, who commanded the Attack, that I ſhould do them Injuſtice, if I did not mention them in a particular Manner to your Lordſhip. Our Mines were ſprung about One o'Clock, and a Breach made juſt practicable for a File of Men in Front. The Enemy was drawn up on the Top of it, in Force, with a ſeeming Determination to defend it: The Attack was ſo vigorous and impetuous, that the Enemy was inſtantaneouſly drove from the Breach, and his Majeſty's Standard planted upon the Baſtion.

I did not ſend a particular Expreſs with this good News to your Lordſhip, becauſe I flattered myſelf, that what has happened would ſoon be the Conſequence of our Succeſs at Fort Moro.

On the 11th in the Morning, by a Signal from the Fort, we opened our Batteries againſt the Town, and Punta Fort: The Guns and Mortars were ſo well ſerved by the Artillery and Sailors, and their Effect ſo great, that in leſs than ſix Hours all the Guns in the Fort and North Baſtion were ſilenced. The Governor hung out the White Flag, and beat a Parley; and at the ſame Time ſent out an Officer to propoſe a Ceſſation of Arms for 24 Hours, in order to prepare the Articles of Capitulation.

I ſent on board the Namur to the Admiral, to inform him of the Governor's Propoſals.

Sir George Pocock immediately came to my Quarters, and we agreed to a Suſpenſion of Hoſtilities to the 13th at 12 o'Clock.

I ſummoned the Governor on the 10th. His Anſwer was very civil and proper; at the ſame Time ſaid he would defend his Town to the laſt Extremity.

The Difficulties the Officers and Soldiers have met with, and the Fatigues they have ſo chearfully and reſolutely gone through, ſince the Army firſt landed on this Iſland, are not to be deſcribed. They deſerve from me the greateſt Commendations; and I muſt entreat your Lordſhip to take the firſt Opportunity of informing his Majeſty how much I think myſelf obliged to Lieutenant General Elliot, and the Reſt of the General Officers under my Command; to every Officer and Soldier in the Army; and to the Officers and Sailors of his Majeſty's Fleet, for the zealous Manner with which they have carried on the Service, and for the great Aſſiſtance I have received from them. Happy we ſhall all think ourſelves, if our Conduct meets with his Majeſty's Approbation.

Sir George Pocock and Commodore Keppel have exerted themſelves in a moſt particular Manner; and I may venture to ſay, that there never was a joint Undertaking carried on with more Harmony and Zeal on both Sides, which greatly contributed to the Succeſs of it.

Captain Nugent, one of my Aid-de-Camps, who has the Honour of delivering you my Diſpatches, can inform your Lordſhip of any Particulars you are pleaſed to learn from him. He has been very active, and preſent at every material Affair that has happened ſince the Landing of the Troops. I muſt beg through your Lordſhip to recommend him to his Majeſty as a very deſerving young Man. He carries with him the Spaniſh Enſign taken at the Moro.

Colonel Carleton, who has acted as Brigadier ſince Lord Rollo left the Army, had the Misfortune of being wounded on the 22d of July, when the Enemy made a Sortie: He is at preſent in a fair Way of doing well.

I think it but Juſtice to Major Fuller, who is my eldeſt Aid-de-Camp, to ſay, that I ſhould have ſent him to England, if I had not thought it would be more agreeable to his Majeſty, to receive the News by one of his own Servants.

I am, &c. ALBEMARLE.

Copy of a Letter from Sir George Pocock to Mr. Cleveland dated off Chorera River, near the Havannah, Auguſt 19, 1762.

SIR,

I Deſire you will acquaint their Lordſhips, that it is with the greateſt Pleaſure I now congratulate them on the great Succeſs of his Majeſty's Arms, in the Reduction of the Havannah, with all its Dependencies.

The Moro Fort was taken by Storm the 30th of laſt Month, after a Siege of 29 Days; during which Time the Enemy loſt above 1000 Men, and a brave Officer in Don Lewis de Valaſco, Captain of one of their Men of War, and Governor in the Moro, mortally wounded in defending the Colours Sword in Hand in the Storm: And on the 11th Inſt. the Governor of the Havannah deſired to capitulate for the Town, which was granted, the Articles agreed to, and ſigned (a Copy of which I incloſe) and we were put in Poſſeſſion of the Punta and Land Gate the 14th. With this great and important Acquiſition to his Majeſty, has alſo fallen 12 large Men of War of the Line, as per Liſt, 3 of which were ſunk, with a Company's Ship, in the Entrance of the Harbour; 9 are fit for Sea, and 2 upon the Stocks; a Blow that I hope will prove the more Capital to the Enemy, as they receive it ſo early in the War; and I may venture to ſay, will leave all their Settlements, in this Part of the World, expoſed to any Attempts that may be thought proper to be made on them. But however trivial, with the Poſſeſſion of the Havannah, it may appear, yet I cannot help mentioning the Diſcovery, and poſſeſſing the Harbour of Mariel, about 7 Leagues to the Leeward of this, and which we had made ourſelves Maſters of, though the Enemy had endeavoured to ruin it by ſinking Ships in the Entrance; and we had lately ſent near 100 Tranſports, with ſome Men of War there, for Security againſt the Seaſon, in which we are already advanced.

It will be as needleſs, as almoſt impoſſible, for me to expreſs or deſcribe that perfect Harmony that has uninterruptedly ſubſiſted between the Fleet and Army, from our firſt ſetting out. Indeed it is doing Injuſtice to both to mention them as two Corps, ſince each has endeavoured, with the moſt conſtant and chearful Emulation, to render it but One; uniting in the ſame Principles of Honour and Glory for their King and Country's Service. I am glad, on this Occaſion, to do Juſtice to the diſtinguiſhed Merit of Commodore Keppel, who executed the Service, under his Direction, on the Coxemar Side, with the greateſt Spirit, Activity, and Diligence; and I muſt repeat, that the Zeal his Majeſty's Sea Officers and Seamen exerted, in carrying on the Services allotted to them, is highly to be commended.

I ſhall now beg Leave to refer their Lordſhips to Captain Hervey for all further Particulars, who I ſend with this Letter, and who has approved himſelf a brave and deſerving Officer in this Expedition; therefore think myſelf obliged to deſire their Lordſhips will recommend him to his Majeſty. I am, Sir, Your moſt Obedient Humble Servant,

G. POCOCK.

LONDON,

Sept. 28. A Merchant in Town has received a Letter from Quida on the Mallacca Coaſt, by the India Ships lately arrived, importing, that the Dutch having behaved with great Inſolence to Siek Raja Mahomet, King of the Country that Borders on the River Siek, and having uſed many of his Subjects very ill by ſeizing their Goods and impriſoning their Perſons, &c. the King exaſperated thereat, raiſed a powerful Army with the greateſt Expedition, and marched out in Queſt of the Dutch Forces, but unfortunately coming to an Engagement with them, his Troops were routed with a very great Slaughter, and himſelf with much Difficulty eſcaped to the King of Siam, who is a diſtant Relation, of whom, and ſome other Princes, he is imploring Aſſiſtance to drive the Dutch farther from his Territories. This Letter adds, that one Henry Stourman, who had been previouſly ſent from Batavia with a large Armament to the Malaccas, conducted the whole Affair, and got an immenſe Booty by it; that the Indian King had a great Number of Cannon with him, but that being wretchedly ſerved, it proved an Incumbrance, it was a principal Cauſe of the Greatneſs of his Overthrow. The Natives are preparing to avenge themſelves if they can, and to extirpate the Dutch utterly from among them; but the latter again are preparing, on their Part, to maintain the Advantages they have already gained, and in Conſequence of a Reſolution for that Purpoſe, a large Re-inforcement of Troops and Warlike Stores is to be ſent them from Batavia, ſo that the whole Malacca Coaſt is in one dire Alarm.

To the GENIUS of BRITAIN.

GENIUS of BRITAIN, ſpread thy guardian Wing
O'er thy lov'd Iſle, and round thy favourite King.
O! pour in BRITAIN's Wounds the healing Balm,
Smooth her (nor, Oh! the pious Wiſh diſclaim!)
Or War with Triumph, or a Peace with Fame.
Her ſacred Rights ſtill teach her to defend,
And ſcorn that Foe ſhe cannot make a Friend.
Where-e'er her Cannons roar, or Enſigns fly,
Plant Dread, and Flight, and each pale Terror nigh.
Let Gallia tremble, and let Bourbon fear,
When glorious GEORGE's conquering Troops appear.
Touch every Heart with Thirſt of honeſt Praiſe,
And Love of Honour more than Length of Days.
With Courage let her awe, with Virtue charm,
Each Realm that courts her Smile, or ſlights her Arm.
Not fond of Peace, if Peace would but inſlave;
Nor dreading War, if War alone can ſave.

BOSTON, November 25, 1762.

On the 21ſt of this Inſtant, Gerſhom Spear, a Boy of about 8 Years of Age, Son of Joſeph Spear, fell from a Wharf in this Town, near the South-Battery.—His Father having occaſion to remove a Lighter or Boat at High-Water, diſcovered the Boy under Water, he immediately got up the Body, and carried it into the Houſe a lifeleſs Corpſe; but having heard the Method of recovering drowned Perſons with Salt, he directly ſtripp'd the Cloaths off the Boy, and applied a Quantity of fine Salt, which he kept conſtantly rubbing the Body with, and applying warm Blankets. Help alſo being obtained a Gliſter was infuſed into the Body, when in about 25 Minutes there were ſeint Signs of Life diſcovered by a Moving of the Belly and a ſmall Noiſe in the Bowels, which ſoon after was followed by a Froth iſſuing from his Mouth: The Method was continued till the Water diſcharged itſelf freely, and in about two Hours the Boy recovered his Senſes ſo as to ſpeak; and in an Hour or two after was able to give an Account of the Manner of his falling in, which, to the Time of his Father's taking him up according to the beſt Computation, was above a Quarter of an Hour: However that be, the Boy when carried into the Houſe had no Pulſe, his Neck ſtiff, and to all Appearance was dead:—He is now recovered excepting his Feet, which by the Blood ſettling there has cauſed a Soreneſs that prevents his walking.

We find ſuch an Inſtance of recovering from Drowning, no longer ago than the Month of July, viz.

London, Auguſt 14, 1762.

We have advice from Oporto, that a Man lately fell overboard there, and was taken up from the Bottom about Three Quarters of an Hour afterwards, he was carried on board the Ship he belong'd to, and Orders were actually given for ſewing him up in his Hamock, in order to bury him; but the Britiſh Vice Conſul, Mr. Hervey, a very humane Man, hearing of the Affair, took a Boat, went on board, laid the Fellow by the Fire Side, and kept rubbing him with common Salt till Life returned, and the Man is now hearty and well. Mr. Hervey ſays he had known a Dog kept under Water two Hours, and recovered by being covered with Salt: The ſame Experiment has alſo ſucceeded in recovering a Cat.

(There have been Inſtances publiſhed in ſome former Magazines of Perſons being recovered after laying in the Water a much longer Time than the above, by the ſame Method: —— Some have aſſerted that it may be practiſed with Succeſs on any drowned Bodies, provided no Putrefaction appears.)

NEWPORT, November 29.

We have undoubted Intelligence of a dangerous and horrid Conſpiracy, which was forming at the Havannah, under the Influence and Direction of the Biſhop, and was to be put in Execution immediately upon the Admiral's Sailing. The Biſhop had collected a great Number of Men (ſaid by ſome to be ſeveral Thouſands) in a remote Place, a conſiderable Diſtance from the City, which coming to the Knowledge of the Earl of Albemarle, his Lordſhip, in a very polite Manner, ordered an Aid-de-Camp, with a Chariot, to wait upon the Biſhop, deſiring to ſpeak with him; but he, in a very inſolent Manner, diſregarded the Summons; on which his Lordſhip ordered the Chariot back, with a Number of Soldiers, who brought the Biſhop to the City, and his Intentions not being doubted (which was ſaid to be no leſs than a general Maſſacre of all the Engliſh, the Spaniards having been buſy in buying a great Number of Knives) he was conducted on board the Namur, and ſailed with the Admiral for England.

WILLIAMSBURG, November 26.

Laſt Sunday Evening the following barbarous and unheard of Piece of Cruelty, was perpetrated at Portſmouth, by a Number of Sailors, moſt of them belonging to his Majeſty's Ship Arundel, now lying there: A Tranſport Ship from the Havannah, having on board a conſiderable Number of Spaniſh Soldiers and Sailors, among whom was the Second in Command of the Sea Service, with his Family, and ſeveral other Officers of Diſtinction, put into Hampton Road to refit, having ſprung a Leak at Sea. Accordingly the Spaniards were allowed to go on Shore, until ſuch Time as the Veſſel got ready to proceed on her Voyage, and they have behaved extremely well ſince their Arrival; but a Quarrel happening between ſome of the Man of War's Men, and ſome of the Spaniſh Soldiers or Sailors, the former called in others to their Aſſiſtance, and they at laſt got together in a large Body, drove the Spaniards to the Houſe where they lodged, and not ſatisfied with this, fired in upon the poor People, killed One, and wounded ſeveral others, One of whom is ſince dead. They alſo burſt into the Commandant's Houſe, beat himſelf, and one of the Captains ſeverely, and all his Domeſtics, excepting Two, who hid themſelves, are much wounded; they alſo plundered and robbed the Houſe of Money, and ſeveral other Things of conſiderable Value. They likewiſe ſet Fire to the Houſe in which the People had locked themſelves, and ſome of them actually went for Powder to blow them up, but happily the Extent of their Fury was not accompliſhed; their Rage, however, would have been attended with ſtill more horrid and fatal Conſequences, if Captain Manwaring, hearing of it, had not come and diſperſed his People, on which many others that were concerned went off alſo. The Gentlemen in Portſmouth did every Thing in their Power to quiet the Riot, but in vain; and one Gentleman in Particular, at the Hazard of his own Life, reſcued a Lady and two Gentlemen from the Hands of the Barbarians. As ſoon as the Alarm was given at Norfolk, the Militia was immediately ordered over to Portſmouth, who diſcovered the greateſt Alacrity in aſſiſting theſe unhappy People. Some of the Rioters have been taken up and committed to Gaol, and the utmoſt Diligence is uſed in apprehending all concerned in this ſcandalous Affair. The Commandant Don Pedro has been very bad of his Wounds, but it is thought will recover; however, this Affair has put him and his Family into ſuch a Conſternation, that they have removed to Norfolk, where every Body ſeems pleaſed with their agreeable and polite Behaviour, and do every Thing in their Power to make their Reſidence there agreeable. The principal View of the Seamen, in this villainous Tranſaction, ſeems to have been nothing more than Plundering the Spaniards, who they underſtood had a good Deal of Money with them; however, it is to be hoped the Ringleaders will be found out, and made Examples of.

CHARLES-TOWN (South-Carolina) OB. 30.

On Thurſday laſt arrived here from England, his Majeſty's Ship Epreuve, commanded by Peter Blake, Eſq; ſent hither with Outaſſite or Judd's Friend, and the two other Cherokee Indians, that went from Virginia in the ſaid Veſſel. Great Attention was paid to thoſe Indians in England by his Majeſty's Miniſters, of which they are very ſenſible, as well as of the Care Captain Blake has taken of them. Yeſterday Outaſſite had an Audience of his Excellency the Governor in Council, when he expreſſed his Attachment to the Britiſh Nation.

His Excellency has ſent off a Meſſenger to the Cherokee Country with Accounts of their Arrival here; and has ordered Carriages to be provided for carrying up the Preſents they received in England from the King. The Miniſtry was not a little embarraſſed, in Regard to thoſe Indians, by their Interpreter's dying ſoon after they left Virginia; and no Perſon capable of ſpeaking the Cherokee Language could be found in or about London, though all poſſible Means were uſed for that Purpoſe.

ANNAPOLIS, December 23.

Thurſday laſt a Negro Man was committed to our Priſon, on a ſtrong Suſpicion of having ſet Fire to the Barn of Mr. Marriott, on the Friday before.

We have certain Intelligence, that the Sloop Charming Nancy, Capt. Robert Craigg, belonging to this Place, was taken on her Paſſage to Barbados, by a Spaniſh Privateer of 8 Guns; who alſo took about the ſame Time, the Snow ———, Capt. Pines, belonging to this Province, bound to the ſame Iſland.

On Saturday the 13th Day of November, Died at her Houſe in Stafford County, in the Colony of Virginia, Mrs. ANNE MASON, Widow and Relict of Col. GEORGE MASON. To give her true Character at Length, would, to thoſe who had the Pleaſure of her Acquaintance, be unneceſſary; and by Strangers, would be thought Flattery. Let it ſuffice therefore to obſerve, that She diſcharged her Duty, in the ſeveral Characters of a Wife, a Parent, a Miſtreſs, a Friend, a Neighbour, and a Chriſtian, with that diſtinguiſhed Luſtre, which every one would wiſh to imitate; but Few have ever equalled. Providence was accordingly pleaſed to reward her Virtues in this World, by gratifying her in the Accompliſhment of the Firſt and Deareſt Wiſh of her Heart (the Happineſs of her Children.) And after preparing her by a long and painful Illneſs, which She bore with exemplary Reſignation; permitted her, in the Sixty-third Year of her Age, to exchange the tranſitory Pleaſures of this World, for thoſe never-fading Joys, which Goodneſs, like hers, may reaſonably be aſſured of meeting with in the next.

Laſt Week arrived at Oxford, the Schooner Peggy, Capt. William Grymes: This is the ſame Veſſel which was taken in Cheſapeak-Bay, by Don Pedro, in July laſt, loaded with Bale Goods, as formerly mentioned. After Don Pedro had ſent Mr. John Glaſſell, and Others who were taken in her, aſhore near our Capes, he put Capt. Grymes on board the Prize Schooner to navigate her; but ſoon after they left the Capes, they parted Company, and Capt. Grymes being the only Navigator on board, inſtead of carrying her to Auguſtine, ſteer'd her into Savannah in Georgia, from whence ſhe is now juſt arrived. Soon after the Arrival in Maryland, of Mr. John Glaſſell, and other Gentlemen concerned in the Cargo, a Letter was publiſhed in the Virginia Gazette, complaining of the Conduct of one Mr. Baird, who had likewiſe been taken by the ſame Privateer; that Letter, and the conſequent Reports, produced ſeveral Affidavits by Mr. Baird, and Others, publiſhed in the Pennſylvania Gazette, to vindicate the Character of Baird, and throw an Odium on Glaſſell, &c. In Anſwer to which, Meſſrs. Glaſſell and M'Caull, publiſhed a Letter in the Maryland Gazette of the 18th of laſt Month: And Now, in Order to ſtrengthen that Vindication of their Innocence, with Reſpect to their wrongfully accuſing Mr. Baird, the following Depoſition of Capt. Grymes is here inſerted.

Talbot County, ſſ. ON the Thirteenth Day of Decem. 1762, came WILLIAM GRYMES, Maſter of the Schooner Peggy, before me, JAMES DICKINSON, one of the Right Hon. the Lord Proprietary of the Province of Maryland his Juſtices of the Peace for Talbot County, and being Sworn on the Holy Evangels of Almighty GOD, did Depoſe as followeth, "That while he "was a Priſoner on board the Mariane Privateer, Don Pedro Ordogner, Commander, "with Meſſieurs John Glaſſell and Ebenezer Mackie, who were taken with him in the "ſaid Schooner, he ſaw and often converſed "with a certain John Baird, who was alſo "a Priſoner: That the ſaid Baird ſeveral "Times earneſtly deſired and requeſted of this "Deponent, that he would be ſilent and not "make it known that he the ſaid Baird had "been taken; for that he was reſolved to en-"deavour to get Inſurance made on his Sloop, "before his Misfortune ſhould be heard of.— "That this Deponent being about to write "to his Partner, Mr. John Goodrick of Portſ-"mouth in Virginia, the ſaid Baird gave him "the HONEST AND FRIENDLY Advice, to "let Writing alone, and not FOOLISHLY "acquaint his Partner, or any other, with "what had happened; for that Mr. Goodrick, "on this Schooner's being long miſſing, "might probably reſolve to get Inſurance "made on her. And further this Deponent "ſaith not. WILLIAM GRYMES."

Taken and ſworn to the Day and Year above written, before

We are indebted to the Author of this Work for the Introduction of a new and agreeable Species of Writing, in which the Beauties of Poetry, and the Advantages of Hiſtory, are happily united. The Story is founded on real Facts. The Language, tho' adorned and elevated, is yet chaſte and correct. The Sentiments are exactly conformable to thoſe exquiſite Notions of Gallantry and Honour, which prevailed in the Age of his Hero. The Spirit and Manners of the Times are ſtrictly preſerved in the Characters, which are ſingular and lively, ſtrongly marked and invariably ſupported. The Deſcriptions are beautifully luxuriant, but never gratify the Fancy at the Expence of the Writer's Judgment. The Events, tho' frequent, are not perplexed, and without deviating from Probability, are very powerfully intereſting. The Conduct reſembles that of an Epic Poem, and had it the Advantage of Meaſure, we ſhould not ſcruple to call it by that Name.
